

LOWER UMPQUA HOSPITAL JOB POSTING

Position	Phlebotomist
Department	Laboratory
Status	On-Call
Post Date	August 28, 2019
Date Available	August 28, 2019
Close Date	Until Filled

Qualifications:

- High School education or equivalent required.
- Experienced phlebotomist
- Ability to work independently

Position Summary:

- Performs blood draws using advanced techniques and equipment to obtain laboratory specimens. These include venipuncture and skin punctures.
- Assist with processing specimens for reference laboratories.
- Assists with filing and getting final results to Medical Records for patient charts.
- Uses telephone efficiently, directs calls to others, gives reports to physicians.
- Assists in ordering of supplies and restocking of supplies in the department.
- Participates in team building by maintaining constructive relationships and encouraging others to learn new skills.
- Follows department procedures as written, provides input for new medical procedures.
- Responsible for being familiar with and working to be in compliance with all regulatory standards and requirements that apply to his/her work area. As part of the institutions ongoing quality improvement effort, the employee should pursue opportunities to resolve identified problems and improve patient care.
- Responsible for being familiar with safety policies and procedures related to their work area and will comply with these policies.

Contact	Holly Tavernier, Director of Human Resources	Phone Number	(541) 271-6327
Email	hr@luhonline.com		